Sue Ramsey provided a very informative talk about her quote to tract one soldier, Capt Sims, during the civil war. She has a passion for genealogy and looked into this family and ended up meeting many of his descendants that are still alive. He ended up dying on the battle field but she found that he was a much respected soldier who stuck with his troops even though he was offered promotions. Thank you Sue for a fascinating story and brining his memory back from your study of his letters, etc.
